

SCHOLARSHIP GRANT for the calendar year 2018 in the Faculty of Computer Science and Biomedical Engineering

According to § 63 Studienförderungsgesetz (StudFG) study grant act, scholarship grants exist to support degree programme students working on academic theses or artistic work (diploma thesis, master's thesis, doctoral thesis).

A scholarship grant for one academic year cannot be less than € 750 and cannot be more than € 3,600. According to § 67 (2) StudFG, the university body responsible for study matters awards the grant. There is no entitlement to a grant.

If a grant is awarded, the scholarship grant must be used appropriately according to StudFG, which means that a report is to be submitted to Mag. Ursula Birkner.

A Requirements according to § 66 StudFG

1. The applicant has Austrian citizenship or is considered as equivalent to Austrian citizens according to § 4 StudFG.
2. An application written by the student for a scholarship grant to undertake a thesis that has not yet been completed, which includes a description of the thesis, a specification of costs and a financing plan.
3. Submission of at least one letter of recommendation from a habilitated university teacher on the specification of costs and whether the student's previous work and the suggestions regarding the thesis show that they are likely to be capable of writing a thesis of a particularly high standard.
4. Compliance with entitlement period of the relevant stage of a degree programme according to § 18 (this is the legally defined period of study plus one additional semester), taking into account possible important reasons stipulated in § 19 (e.g. pregnancy, military service. etc.)
5. Compliance with the submission requirements: documents as described in sections A and B

Further information on additional requirements can be found on the relevant pages of the Dean's Office in TU4U.

B The applicant must also submit
